What is Braza ??

Braza is, in just a few words, an Authentic Brazilian Barbeque house. It is a place for meat lovers and for people who enjoy different experiences in life.

The word Braza does also have a couple of different meanings back in Brazil.

The first one relates directly to Barbeque. Braza means sizzling charcoal. You know when you light the bbq, it takes a little while to start, and then it starts to burn like hell, and just a few moments after that, it is when you call the charcoal is with "Braza". It is when the charcoal is in its most perfect condition for the perfect cooking of all different types of juicy meats. "Eta brasinha boa..."

The second meaning is a nickname or you can call it a slang, used by Brazilians when referring to Brazil. Usually used like..."Vão bora pro Braza?"... "Bora!" You can ask your waitress to translate that.

Well... please then enjoy your dinning experience here at Braza Churrascaria!

Let's go...

Rodízio Rules

- The Churrasco, is traditionally served in Rodízio style. That means all skewers are coming randomly to your table in no particular order.
- Do not overfill your plate. We serve more than 23 different skewers and all of them are worth a try. You can always ask for your favorites again.
- As "all you can eat style" we intend to serve to your satisfaction. No take away or doggie bags are allowed.
- Churrascaria is the "Meatlovers house", however we do our best to cater for vegetarians. Regardless there is a minimum charge of $42 per person.
- All kids 4 to 12 years old will be charged half price $21.
- Braza is not BYO.
- We serve one bill per table, which can be split between 2 cards only.

So, enough said... let's have a "churrasquinho"...
