Pinot Noir

Tasmania is renowned for its Pinot Noirs. We are pleased to showcase some of the finest examples together with some notable wines from other regions.

2005	Nandroya, D'Entrecasteaux Channel, Tasmania Nandroya is a small vineyard growing Pinot Noir and Sauvignon Blanc. The vineyard is located on Sandfly road east of Margate. The wines are made by Andrew Hood and represent good value for money. This is a light fruit driven Pinot showing flavors of cherry and spice.	33.00
2007	Bass Straight, Regional, Tasmania Made from fruit grown in Northern Tasmania this Pinot is perfumed with raspberry, chocolate &amp; spice. The warm, dry conditions of the 2007 vintage produced fruit of excellent ripeness and quality.	36.00
2005	Pages Creek, Coal River Valley, Tasmania Pages Creek is a 10 acre vineyard established in 1999 by Peter and Sue Lowrie. This wine displays typical Tasmanian pinot characters of black cherry and spice, hints of chocolate, and earth, good acid structure and balance.	42.00
2007	Ten Minutes By Tractor 10x, Mornington Peninsular, Victoria Ten Minutes By Tractor grows Pinot Noir and Chardonnay on three vineyards, each of which are ten minutes by tractor apart. Ten Minutes By Tractor has a non-interventionist approach to winemaking. All wines are wild yeast ferment. This Pinot shows flavours of red and dark berries, hints of spice and a wonderful earthy finish.	46.00
2005	Milton, Cranbrook, Tasmania The warm summer and modest cropping levels of 2005 provided the Dunbabin family with an excellent Pinot Noir harvest at Milton Vineyard on Tasmania's East Coast. Deep rich crimson and black cherry colour with an intensely concentrated ripe cherry nose, it has an excellent depth of flavour and a finely balanced tannin structure.	48.00
2006	Winstead, Bagdad, Tasmania A great vintage for this small family run vineyard, only two and a half a hectares. Neale Snare has produced an outstanding Pinot displaying varietal characters, dark berries, a hint of spice and charr, balanced with fine tannins.	52.00
1998	Drew, Coal River Valley, Tasmania This is a rare opportunity to taste a classic aged Tasmanian Pinot. A complex wine with integrated tannins and great mouth feel, good balance of fruit. This wine needs to be handled carefully and decanted at least 20 minutes before drinking.	60.00
2005	Ese, Tea Tree, Tasmania Elvio and Natalie Brianeese are an architect and graphic designer couple whose extended family have been involved in viticulture in Veneto region northern Italy. Their 2.5 ha vineyard bears Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. A beautiful rich wine showing typical varietal character, similar to the fantastic 2002 vintage.	65.00
2006	Hoeyfield, D'Entrecasteaux Channel, Tasmania Outstanding vintage from the small vineyard 2 km south from Peppermint Bay. Bronze and Silver medal winner at the Tasmanian wine show 2007 and 2008	68.00
2004	Wither Hills, Marlborough, New Zealand The aromas are youthful, complex, ever evolving. Taste ripe black cherry, rich plum, spice with hints of liquorice, rose petal and a bouquet reminiscent of being deep in an oak forest in the Autumn.	74.00
2006	Apsley Gorge Vineyard, Bicheno, Tasmania A sophisticated Pinot that has classic East Coast ripeness and a long rounded finish. Brian Franklin reveals his Burgundian influence, in this wine that is drinking well now.	76.00
2006	Gravitas, Marlborough, New Zealand One of the deepest hued Pinot's we've ever seen and yet it has very soft tannins.	78.00
2005	Domaine A, Coal River Valley, Tasmania A beautiful wine in every respect with hints of fine-grained French oak integrated with complex aromas of cherry, truffle, white pepper and overlays of spice.	89.00
1999	Domaine Fourrier Gevrey Chambertin, Cote d'Or, Burgundy Cherries, strawberries and barnyard with raspberry flavours in the background. Not a subtle customer, but that's fine, just sit back and love this classic vintage from Gevrey Chambertin	165.00
2000	Domaine A Reserve du Patron, Coal River Valley, Tasmania A rare wine from renowned wine maker Peter Althaus that is bold, complex and has awesome length. Subtle plum, morello cherry and game flavours combine and the time in oak produces soft tannins and structure.	260.00
