

BEVERAGE MENU

Americano 18

Campari, Sweet Vermouth, Club Soda

A cocktail you'll love at first sip. In fact they say that once you've tried it you'll never get tired of its special texture and striking mix of flavours.

French 75 18

Dry Gin, Lemon, Sugar, Champagne

The drink dates to 1915... Another 'Harry's Bar' favourite, guaranteed to give your night the kick start it needs!

main course

noun: main course; plural noun: main courses the most substantial course of a meal.

"it is vital to have a light first course and pud on either side of a heavy main course"

The Hurricane 20

White Rum, Dark Rum, Passionfruit, Orange, Lime, Sugar, Grenadine

When in Rome? How about when in New Orleans? This powerful tropical drink will transport you to the French Quarter with the first sip. Created in the 1940's, this super boozy concoction that will get the party started no matter where you are.

Penicillin 20

Blended Scotch, Islay Scotch, Lemon, Honey, Ginger

Liquid therapy comes in the form of Penicillin. The perfect remedy for "whatever ails ya"

Clover Club 20

Dry Gin, Lemon, Raspberry, Egg White

Originally named for a Philadelphia social club with roots tracing back to the 1800's, the clover club was, for decades, one of the marks of a sophisticated boozier, a manly drink (despite its pink hue). Are you man enough?

Southside 20

Dry Gin, Lime, Sugar, Mint

Picture 1920's Chicago, sat in a speakeasy bar, surrounded by gangsters and their molls....what more could you want?!

Black Julep 20

Kentucky Bourbon, Blackberries, Mint, Sugar

The traditional drink of the Kentucky Derby during which some 80,000 juleps are served!

Simple and refreshing, but don't be misled....this drink certainly packs a mighty punch!

Dessert

Noun

the sweet course eaten at the end of a meal

Espresso Martini 18

Vodka, Vanilla Liqueur, Coffee Liqueur, Espresso

Skip the after dinner coffee and go straight to the Espresso Martini. A perfect finish to the evening.

Hot Buttered Spiced Rum 18

Spiced Rum, Maple Syrup, Butter

The perfect winter drink. Warm and comforting, which is just what we need as we gravitate towards the coldest days of the year.

Favourite (Bartenders)

Adjective

preferred to all others of the same kind.

Sazerac 22

Rye Bourbon (New York) or Cognac (New Orleans), Absinth rinse, Peychauds Bitters, Sugar, Lemon

This iconic New Orleans cocktail dates to the 1850's, when it was first served at the 'Sazerac Coffee House'. Whether you go classic New Orleans or the modern New York, you won't be disappointed. Choose your poison!

Old Fashioned 20

Rum or Bourbon, Sugar, Bitters, Orange

Classic name that's better on the palate than it sounds to the ear.

Café Patron Espresso Martini 22

Café Patron Espresso Tequila Liqueur, Vanilla liqueur, Espresso

The Espresso Martini taken to the next level! The classic pick-me-up with a kick!

Hanky Panky 22

Dry Gin, Sweet vermouth, Fernet Branca, Orange

"That is the real hanky panky", and the hanky panky it has been called ever since"

The Hanky Panky is a variation on the sweet martini. The secret to this drink is the addition of Fernet Branca.

The Last Word 22

Dry Gin, Green Chartreuse, Luxardo Maraschino Liqueur, Lime

A rediscovered gem straight out of the prohibition era. The Last Word is one of the finest cocktails to come out of that era.

Manhattan 20

Rye Bourbon, Sweet Vermouth, Bitters

One of the finest and oldest cocktails, the Manhattan is truly a classic cocktail.

Negroni 20

Campari, Sweet Vermouth, Gin

It's the only drink to order these days if you want to a) Tell everyone around you that you're smart, savvy and sophisticated and b) enjoy one of the very best tipples you ever did sip.

Boulevardier 20

Rye, Campari, Sweet Vermouth

The boulevardier dates back to prohibition. One of the greatest cocktails ever made (not biased at all)

A cousin to the Negroni. Sweet, bitter and smooth, with a more robust flavour profile. We like to use Rye Bourbon in ours for that extra little something, I like mine served on the rocks but straight up is just as good!
