COCKTAILS

All Cocktails: $16.00

MOJITO

This traditional Cuban cocktail & supposedly a favourite drink of the writer Ernest Hemingway. A wild concoction of white rum, sugar, fresh lime, mint sprigs & soda.

NEGRONI

Possibly first created in Florence, Italy in 1919, at Caffè Casoni & named after Count Camillo Negroni. A stylish mix of gin, Campari & sweet red vermouth.

COSMOPOLITAN

Allegedly created in 1975 by Neli Murray at a steak house in Minneapolis called the Cork & Cleaver. Our sexy mix of vodka, Cointreau, cranberry juice & lime.

THE JOHN CADMAN

Named after the first Water Policeman on Sydney Harbour. A smooth blend of Kahlua, Baileys Irish cream, Frangelico liqueur & cream.

MIDORI SPLICE

Its tranquil name hides a truly wild combination of Midori, Cointreau, Malibu, pineapple juice, built over ice & a dash of cream.

MARGARITA STRAIGHT

One story says Daniel Negrete created the cocktail in 1936. When Daniel's brother was due to be wed, Daniel presented the cocktail as a wedding present to his sister-in-law, Margarita. A frisky mix of tequila, Cointreau & lemon juice.

SYDNEY BAY BREEZE

This is our more sophisticated version of those cocktails with names which can't be advertised. Even still it's guaranteed to create the mood: vodka, schnapps, pineapple & cranberry juice.

VODKA MARTINI

Bond's favourite. Two parts vodka, one part Dry Vermouth. Shaken, of course.
